

Hartford Republican

FRIDAY, MARCH 25, 1892.
PUBLISHED EVERY FRIDAY MORNING.

JO. H. ROGERS, Editor and Proprietor,
C. M. BARRETT, Associate Editor.

ALEXANDER Hamilton's old home in New York City was sold Tuesday for $140,500.

An appropriation of $15,000 dollars has been obtained for Rough River. Hartford will have slack-water navigation after a little.

The Owensboro Messenger owned up Tuesday thusly: "The melancholy days for Democracy have come; the silver trouble begins in the House today."

A FINE life size portrait of the late Hon. H. D. McHenry can be seen at the Bank. It calls to memory the honest face of Hartford's most lamented citizen.

"We have cheapened sugar and quinine." Really have "we"? When? Where? "We" will doubtless claim next that "we" have passed the McKinley bill.

Mills goes into the Senate and like a great many other men whose ambition carries them beyond their depth he will sink into political insignificance.

BEFORE a man asks for a discussion he should know what his own party is in favor of. At present the Democracy is completely at sea on the Tariff and almost everything else.

THE Governor has issued a proclamation calling for the election of a Congressman in the Tenth District to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Representative Kendall. The election will be held April 28.

In Judge A. B. Baird's death, Hartford loses one of her oldest and most respected citizens. The members of the C. P. Church speak of holding memorial services at their next meeting in honor of their lamented brother.

SUNDAY'S Courier-Journal in speaking of the Henderson State Line says: "The building of the road will now be begun in earnest." The contract has been let to Oliver Ferguson & Co., of St. Louis, who will begin work at once and the road assumes the air of a certainty.

AN APPEAL TO REASON.
In answer to the petition of the people of Ohio county, the Legislature passed a law prohibiting the sale of intoxicating drinks in any quantity whatever, either directly or indirectly, within the limits of the county. But before such law should go into effect an election was to be held to take the sense of the people whether they would adopt it. A majority of about seven hundred citizens said by their votes that the law was good and that Ohio county would be better off without the sale of intoxicants. The fact that this law originated with the people and was not operative until voted on by them makes it the completest example of the action of a pure democracy possible in a representative form of Government.

In view of these facts, it is passing strange that any man who knows the advantages to be gained by the supremacy of law should studiously and wilfully violate the will of his fellow-citizens so emphatically expressed. That such is the case, however, no observing citizen can deny. What save the love of money can prompt men to such action? Why will some of our citizens purchase the sufferance of power they fear presumably for the express purpose of shielding them in an illicit traffic, when, in the pursuit of such traffic, they grossly violate State law as they would Natural law if they had not paid the special tax? Do they set State and county authority at naught? Their action is an open insult not only to these but to the people. What can a man gain by violating law? Surely nothing save, perhaps, a few paltry dollars. He cannot hope to gain friends; he cannot hope to increase the confidence of the people in himself.

He cannot hope to win the approval of his own conscience or the favor of his God. Will not those who thus bid defiance to law and good government be reasonable? We appeal to your own reason, your own sense of honor and ask you in all candor would it not be best for you as well as for the people if you would cease our thrusts at my personal actions.

Having been a resident of Ohio county the greater part of my life, serving the people in different public capacities, and having, I trust, the welfare of its people as much at heart as the Editor of the Herald, I feel convinced that the weak and despicable efforts of that paper to "get up on its feet" again will be readily recognized.

KNOCKED OUT.

Dave Smith Puts the Herald Man Under the Ropes.

OWENSBORO, March 21.

EDITORIAL REPUBLICANS.—The people of Ohio county have naturally expected, and still await a reply to the questions so repeatedly put to the Herald in regard to Boodle, and as a consequence of the miserable excuse of an answer published by the Herald last week, they may think it is due to the "insignificance" of the writer. I myself have never expected an answer for I knew all along the line that the Herald's cry of corruption was only an inglorious attempt to cover up its party's footprints.

It I have made a mistake in taking to myself any charges preferred by the Herald against Revenue Officers, who came to Ohio county in 1890, I respectfully ask you to designate the persons to whom you had reference in your frequent allusion to the Boodles who came from Owensboro. After your avowal to be candid and open in all your charges you cannot deny this request, that thereby no more mistakes may arise. I will readily accept your statement, Editor or Herald, that you were not thinking of me at all, in view of the recent "ent and dried" Convention in New York where his "idol" Grover Cleveland was entirely "out of sight" and doubtless in the agitated state of his mind his jaded must have been buried at that "destitute Davie" of Tammany fame. This must be why the Herald seems to have such a bitter feeling against the so called "ent and dried" can-cans.

Knowing the Editor Herald to be the best experienced and informed local editor of the State in the use of Boodle, I refer to him an inquiry that is now arising throughout the country. It seems that after this "ent and dried" Convention in New York, in which the "idol" is overthrown and David B. Hill steps in, Cleveland's friends immediately come to the front by raising $100,000, and the question now is, what is to be done with this money?

Though we know you to have the most perfect knowledge of the doings of all the Conventions, it is a mystery how you could have been informed of my visits to the leaders of the Republican party in Ohio county previous to the Convention of March 5th. However, it is more apparent to me that you should know of my visits to the negro cabins of Ohio county, for, by chance, I met at one of these abodes. This high-minded (?) and intellectual Editor discusses all subjects upon only an intelligent and elevated plane, yet, in his efforts to recover his equilibrium, after such unchallenged evidence of his own duplicity in the corruption of his party, he loses his equilibrium and his frail supports to the level of answering just and true charges by a return of personal abuses, and an effort at race prejudice. Every fair-minded person can see that every attempt at an answer has brought forth nothing but an additional amount of abuse and false statements. I am in doubt whether to attribute many of his misrepresentations to ignorance, or a natural disposition for falsifying. It is either a very ignorant, or a very untruthful man, who claims to inform his readers, and then tell them that a U. S. Store-keeper receives $5.00 per day. This is only another appeal of the demagogue to a sentiment of prejudice that may exist among the people. I believe that the majority of Ohio county citizens (this Editor excepted) know that such an officer has never received more than $4.00 for every day actually served. Is this a fair-minded discussion?

He who cannot tell the truth in small things, cannot be relied upon in giving information in great things. Look at the Herald when the first reply comes to his long-continued trade upon "Republican Boodle." Nothing is heard save a bombastic explosion upon personalities and the question of Boodle was of such little importance that it was left unanswered. In the second reply the subject under discussion was entirely ignored and the Herald denies making any personal allusions to me, but though the writer had the misfortune of never to have received a single thought from the Herald, yet it, in an underhanded and crafty way, seeks to weaken the effect of my appeal to the people by slandering our thrusts at my personal actions.

He cannot hope to win the approval of his own conscience or the favor of his God. Will not those who thus bid defiance to law and good government be reasonable? We appeal to your own reason, your own sense of honor and ask you in all candor would it not be best for you as well as for the people if you would cease our thrusts at my personal actions.

Having been a resident of Ohio county the greater part of my life, serving the people in different public capacities, and having, I trust, the welfare of its people as much at heart as the Editor of the Herald, I feel convinced that the weak and despicable efforts of that paper to "get up on its feet" again will be readily recognized.

D. L. SUTIN.

PLEASANT RIDGE.

The interest in Prof. I. S. Mason's school is unabating, and our people are fully aroused in the educational work. An effort to establish a high school at this place, is meeting with favor and prospects are flattering at present. Sisie King, Ladlow, U. C. Boaz, Beba, Sue Mosley, Whitesville, J. C. Reynolds, Masonville, and J. J. Leach, Sutherland, are new matriculates since my last report.

making 18 boarders and 35 matriculates. With an undivided effort on the part of our citizens, Pleasant Ridge will become the "Athens" of Daviess county in the near future.

B. A. Cundiff filled his regular appointment at this place Saturday night and Sunday.

Quarterly meeting will be held here Tuesday the 29th of this month.

The entertainment given by W. Holbrook and wife Saturday night was attended by a gay crowd and enjoyed by all.

Miss Sue Jenkins visited her friends at home Saturday and Sunday.

W. E. Bennett gave Beda a flying visit Saturday and Sunday.

The organization of the Baptist Church is changed from the 30th of April, to the 3rd and 4th, of May. Dinner will be served on the ground the first day.

Success to the REPUBLICANS.

—HAMILTON,

CROMWELL CULLINGS.

The "Henderson State Line" can be heard frequently once more.

Little Frankie, daughter of Netter Gillstrap, is quite ill of pneumonia.

Married, on the 17th inst., at the residence of the bride's father, Miss Vesta Wilson and Finis Burden, Miss Mosha Leach and Julian Ramney were married Sunday morning at the residence of the bride, in the presence of a large number of friends.

Miss Mattie Chin, an attractive and popular young lady of the Beda neighborhood, returned to her home last week, after a two weeks' visit to friends and relatives here.

Our spring school is still without a teacher, and some competent person would find a pleasant and paying position as our people are enterprising and liberal as to school matters.

Wanted, to know if one Benjamin Harrison Chin, of Beaver Dam, succeeded in reaching his home last Sunday without being frozen, stolen or "haunted."

The usual tranquil serenity of our little town has been dispelled by the advent of a 20th century disciple known as George Hilary Dorris, who hails from the classic hills of Tennessee. Those who presume to differ from him religiously are pronounced "dead certain for Hell" and he offers to let a "ten dollar gold piece" that he can prove his every assertion. He is carrying on at the school house and although but few people have the slightest confidence in his sincerity, he has had good congregations at each performance, and the boys frequently yield to his pleadings, and "stand up" for his prayers. There is a difference of opinion as to whether he is an enthusiastic crank or hypocrite, but your humble correspondent, to say his ravings show too much method for ignorance and decidedly too much profanity to be tolerated by God-fearing people and especially in the house of God, as I understand he has been allowed to preach (?) in churches at some points. His stay here will doubtless be a short one, and I trust for the good name of Ohio county that his stay in the county may be brief. A CHRISTIAN.

ROSENIE.

March 22.—M. S. Ragland & Son's stave machine has been doing an immense business here for the past month.

A freight train killed a very valuable horse of R. R. Wedding's one day last week.

Prof. A. Lee Bennett commenced the spring school here last Monday week with a great number of pupils.

J. F. Atlen and wife, entertained a few of their young friends very pleasantly Saturday night.

S. C. Walker and wife returned to their home in Glasgow to-day, accompanied by Miss Jessie Allen, who will enter Liberty College.

Mrs. E. G. Guffy and little daughter, Mercedes, have returned to their home at Hartford.

Miss Belle Whittinghill has gone to Trister to teach a spring school.

Miss Nara Martin, of Beaver Dam, was the guest of Miss Letta Ragland Sunday.

George Davis, Owensboro;

W. P. Thomas, Hartford, were born Saturday. E. H. White and wife have moved to Louisville.

Success to the REPUBLICAN.

BITTER SWEET.

KINDERHOOK.

March 27.—Miss Anna Tanner, from above Hartford, spent last week in Kinderhook the guest of R. A. Anderson's family.

Miss Prudie Bennett, No Creek, is the guest of Willie Ward and family at this writing.

I. F. Hocker, a former resident of Kinderhook, but now of near Cardwell, Davies county, is visiting friends and relatives at this place.

Ed Ward, No Creek, spent Sunday in Kinderhook.

Mrs. James H. Patton is sick at this writing.

Mrs. Bettie Maple, who has been confined to her room, for sometime is no better at this writing.

On the 18th of March the white angels of death swept over this community and took from our midst Anderson, the infant son of A. W. and Lottie Mills, age 3 years. He was sick only a few days with that fearful disease, pneumonia. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. G. J. Bennett at Alexander school house, after which the little one was laid to rest in the cold and silent grave at that place. We sympathize with the family in this their sad bereavement.

GRASSHOPPER.

—TWINBROTHERS

DRY HOP

YEAST

5CT

QUICK

RISER

FOR

LIGHT BREAD

WATERLOO YEAST CO. DETROIT, MICH.

FORDSVILLE.

March 19.—Mrs. Jones, of this place, is slowly improving. Her brother, Andy Gray, of Jeffersontown, was called to her bed side by telegram last week.

Bad McQuaid's saw mill blew up last week, but no one hurt.

Prof. Stumm's school is progressing very nicely.

Miss Maggie Johnson, who taught school near Patteesville, is attending school here.

Dr. Alva Jones, of this place, is attending the Medical School at Louisville.

Mr. Leanna Smith, of near here, is up again.

Miss Dunlap Hayes called at the store the other day for "home-made" sugar, but received C. E. Ford instead.

Cooper & Sutton have got in their new spring goods.

Ollie Huff, of Whitesville, was up visiting his mother, last Saturday night and Sunday. E. M. J.

POINT PLEASANT.

The farmers have been very busy preparing their corn ground for the plow.

The public school, which was taught by Miss Mecie Tichenor, closed on the 11th inst. Quite a number of the patrons and young people were present.

Rev. D. J. K. Maddox filled his appointment at this place Sunday.

C. T. Maddox, David Maddox and Azzie Maddox, of West Providence, and A. Lee Bennett, Centertown, attended church here Sunday.

Little Roscoe Render is visiting his sister, Mrs. Alvina Rose, of Center town this week.

J. W. Tichenor has not entirely recovered from the grippe.

Willie, the little boy of J. M.

Stegner, was severely burned on last Friday. His clothes caught fire from the grate, and there being no one in the room but his little sister, he was badly burned before aid could reach him. Edwin Rose is on the sick list.

Success to your highly appreciated paper and its worthy editors, is the wish of M.

W. T. MCKENNEY,

DENTIST

BEAVER DAM, KY.

Will be in his office from the first to the 15th of each month. Office over Bank. All work guaranteed. Prices reasonable.

A Car Load

Of the old Reliable

Horse Shoe Brands

of Fertilizers just received. Car Load

Rates. Write or call.

HOCKER & Co.

J. P. BARNARD, Prop., Jno. H. BARNES, Cashier.

STATEMENT

of the Condition of the

Beaver Dam

DEPOSIT BANK

At the Close of Business

Dec. 31, 1891.

RESOURCES.

Loans and Discounts.....$37,064.28

FAIR BROS. & CO.

ORIGINATORS
REGULATORS.
And The BAROMETER
of
LOW
PRICES.

FAIR BROS. & CO.
CASH MERCHANTS.
OUR MOTTO:
Sell Stacks of Goods
at a small profit
rather than
A Small Amount of Goods with Profit
Stacked on Them.

RECOGNIZED by the
ECONOMIC PURCHASING Public As HARTFORD'S SAFEST
TRADING Place.

Call on T. J. Morton for Groceries.

Take your produce to G. T. Westerfield.

For the best flour in town, go to Westerfield's.

Leave your order for groceries at Westerfield's.

Call at the new Furniture store and take a look.

T. J. Morton is anxious to sell you good Groceries and Furniture.

Clothing selling for the price of a mere song this week at Fair Bros. & Co.

Cottonades and Cotton Jeans from 11 to 20cts a yard at Anderson's Bazaar.

Anderson's Bazaar will sell while it lasts, tobacco canvas by the bolt! 12¢ per yard.

Howard's pure crab cider for sale at the Hartford House by the glass, gallon or barrel.

See the beautiful designs in wall paper at 5c, 7c, 8c, and 10c, at Z. Wayne Griffin and Bro.

C. R. Martin wants your Watches, Clocks and Jewelry to repair. Work good and charged low.

See our new sack suits regarded by everyone as beauties.

FAIR BROS. & CO.

We earnestly solicit the patronage of all who want first-class drags.

Z. WAYNE GRIFFIN & BRO.

Our Clothing better than ever, the best ever seen, so everybody says.

FAIR BROS. & CO.

All Patent Medicines constantly on hand and sold at the lowest price at Z. Wayne Griffin and Bro.

Casebier & Burton have lately added another span of fine horses to their already complete stock of heavy teams.

Casebier & Burton will furnish conveyance to and from Beaver Dam at reasonable prices. One price to all. Call and see.

Little Anderson Mills, a three year child of A. W. Mills, near town, died last Friday and was buried Saturday at Alexander burying ground.

J. W. Ford & Co. will handle this year the Old Reliable Champion Mowing and Reaping Machines, improved, also repairs for same with scythes hay rakes.

Last Friday, while Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Ward, who lives at Rev. R. D. Bennett's, were away from home, the house caught fire and had it not been for some of the neighbors who chanced to pass, would have been completely destroyed.

W. B. Ronder returned from Dallas, Texas, on last Saturday. Miss Mary Ronder will remain in Dallas till June, when she will take an extended trip to the Gulf, through Mexico and to other points of interest in the great South-west, returning to Hartford in August.

Miss Sallie Renfrow and Mr. Will Thomas, of Yelvington, Ky., were married at Evansville last Wednesday. Miss Renfrow is the daughter of Virgil Renfrow, of Sulphur Springs, and Mr. Thomas is to be congratulated, as Miss Sallie is one of Ohio Co.'s most popular young ladies.

The District Conference convenes at the Methodist Church here March 31, and continues to April 1, the first Sunday in April. Bishop A. W. Wilson, Baltimore, Rev. Zephaniah Meek, of the Central Methodist, Catlettsburg, and Rev. H. B. Cockrill, of the Kentucky Methodist, Louisville, will attend. Bishop Wilson will be the guest of Mrs. McHea-ry while here.

Judge Baird Dead.

The reaper of death has again visited our town and taken away one of our oldest and best citizens. Alexander Barnett Baird was born in this county, February 21, 1821; died March 20, 1892. At the age of 21 he was appointed Deputy Sheriff of Ohio county, and in 1851 he was elected Justice of the Peace, being one of the first to serve under the new Constitution, but resigned to take his seat as County Judge to which position he was elected in 1854, holding that office two terms—8 years; in 1861 he was engaged in the tobacco business here as agent for a New York firm. Since then he has been engaged in Civil Engineering and Surveying business. He was a prominent member of the C. P. Church, in which he stood high, having represented that church in a General Assembly at Keeney, Pa.

On December 24, 1844, he was married to Miss Sallie M. Barnett and is the father of Col. C. T. Baird, of Louisville; Dr. A. B. Baird, of this town, and the father-in-law of Gen. Sam E. Hill, of Lexington. He was buried in the Hartfort Cemetery Monday at 3 p. m. in the presence of a large crowd of sorrowing friends and relatives.

William A. Edwards and the Ward Bros., of No Creek, delivered a nice lot of hogs to Ben Gray of Beaver, Dam, Tuesday.

The dry goods store just opened by J. H. B. Carson will now run under the name of Carson & Co.

Visit our Clothing department for genuine bargains.

FAIR BROS. & CO.

We have just received a nice line of Prints and Ginghams.

CARSON & CO.

Our spring $10.00 all wool suits are great sellers. Come and see them.

FAIR BROS. & CO.

For seed potatoes, Northern Early Rose, onion sets, all kind field seed and feed stuff, call on J. W. Ford & Co.

3324

C. E. Bourk, who came over recently from Greenville, is highly pleased with his new home among us Hart-fordites.

William A. Edwards and the Ward Bros., of No Creek, delivered a nice lot of hogs to Ben Gray of Beaver, Dam, Tuesday.

Our excellent College correspondent has been sick, and the REPUBLICAN lacks one of its most interesting features this week.

Resolutions on the death of Judge A. B. Baird were handed in too late for publication this week, but will appear in next issue.

L. H. Leach has opened a dry goods and grocery store at Sulphur Springs, while his brother, Charlie, will continue the drug business at Keeney, Pa.

The revival has been a success. The Christians have been revived, many have had the joys of salvation fully restored, and thirty-four sinners have been converted. Surely the Lord has been with his people.

Mrs. Sarah Ann Wallace, No Creek, died Wednesday evening at 6 o'clock. The funeral takes place at No Creek Church this evening at 1 o'clock. She was one of the oldest women in this part of the country and had lived a Christian life for half a century or more.

Hugh Ferguson, the Centertown rapist, was captured in Evansville and brought to jail here Sunday morning by Detectives Hutchinson and Crane. Howell, his accomplice, was captured on Pond River in Hopkins county Monday night and brought to jail Wednesday evening by W. C. Whayne and B. G. Bates, of Calhoun.

For fine Clothing, for medium Clothing, for low-price Clothing go to Fair Bros. & Co.

Bon Long, Sr., was tried Wednesday before Judge Jno. P. Morton for hog stealing and was held under $100 bond to await the action of the Circuit Court.

Ben Long, Jr., was tried Wednesday before Judge Jno. P. Morton for hog stealing and was held under $100 bond to await the action of the Circuit Court.

I am also handling Plows, Deering Mowers and Binders and doing a general Blacksmith Business. Patronage solicited.

F. W. YEISER.

TOWN MARSHAL SHOT.

W. P. Thomas is Seriously Wounded by a Desperate Character Named Ben Long, Jr.

Ben Long, Jr., son, Ben, living about two miles above town, was accused of hog stealing, and on last Saturday a warrant was issued for their arrest. On Monday about 3 o'clock Town Marshal W. P. Thomas and J. S. Moseley went to their home and arrested the two men, who made no resistance and said they would go along at once. All parties were sitting by the fire talking when young Ben got up, walked to the rear of the room and taking down an old musket when the officers were not expecting it, turned upon them with the gun. Moseley ran to a rear door of the house while Long continued to advance on Thomas, who tried to knock the gun away, but missing it, received the blow in his forearm, which was torn in a frightful manner. The long went up his sleeve and not a shot passed out, the wad, shot and all lodging in his arm near the elbow. Moseley fired from the rear but missed Long, and Thomas, who had fallen, needling his attention, he was assisting him when Long appeared at the door and threatened to shoot both of them. Moseley finally succeeded in getting Thomas out of the yard and leaving him in the care of old man Long and Strother Hawkins, came to town for a physician. Young Long loaded his gun and came on where Thomas was lying wounded, attempted to shoot him, but being prevented by his father and Hawkins, fled. Thomas was brought home and Drs. Pendleton, Baird and Miller dressed his wound.

A close watch has been kept for the boy to see if he has not been captured.

IN AND ABOUT TOWN.

Hartford is noted for her professional snow-fighters. Sears on the faces of some of the town boys will readily testify to the above fact. It's getting quite fashionable in Hartford society to send cards before breakfast. We have never had any experience in this line neither do we wish to, for we think it altogether disgusting.

The "Jim" who tried to get the rich man to attend the meeting and do good, is just to the reverse of a certain "Brown" man who when the members of a certain class at College, get on the right track, always has a tendency to get them to do wrong, but it's like pouring water on a duck's back—he has no effect whatever.

Notwithstanding the fact that we're a regular church-goer, have been attending the protracted meeting all the time, trying to do our duty, we are almost forced to loose our religion to some extent, when we miss a stepping-stone now and then and get our "Golden Slippers" in such a condition that we are compelled to stay at home from the Jay service to attend to them—this is our "Desert of Persecution".

PERSONAL.

Henry Field is sick. Miss Dina Tanner, above town, is sick.

C. B. B. Felix, of Olston, was in town this week.

Miss Verda Taylor has returned from Louisville.

T. J. Morton has been quite sick, but is improving.

W. I. Rowe, Centerport, called to see us yesterday.

E. D. Gaffey returned from Frankfort, Saturday.

T. F. Johnston, Sulphur Springs, was in town yesterday.

Miss Gertrude Mills, Kinderhook, is visiting relatives in town.

Miss Katie Coombs has been sick two or three days during the week.

W. G. Tilford and T. C. Pirtle, Cromwell, were in town yesterday.

Charlie Westerfield, an attaché of this office, has been sick, this week.

Mrs. Mary Cox and James and John Thomas have returned from Florida.

Miss Nola Westerfield has been sick for several days, but is improving.

Mrs. W. L. Spaulding is in Owensboro, visiting her aunt, Mrs. Roberts.

Dr. J. S. Coleman and wife are visiting in the city.—[Owensboro Inquirer.]

G. W. Reid and daughter, Miss Manie, visited friends in the city this week.

L. M. Hunt, Horton, L. H. Leach, Sulphur Springs, called to see us Wednesday.

Miss Ella Walker, Beaver Dam, visited Miss Fannie Casebier the first of the week.

Miss Sallie Coleman is visiting her sister at South Carrollton. She will be at home in a few weeks.

Capt. Bibb, who has been visiting his daughter, Mrs. Mac Fair, has returned to his home at Bristol, Tenn.

Miss Maggie Hardwick, of Hartford, is visiting Miss Lettie Lee, on McFarland street.—[Owensboro Inquirer.]

Master Commissioner's Notice to Creditors.

out of circuit court.

W. B. Leach's Adm'r, Plaintiff.

W. B. Leach's Heir, &c. Def'te.

All persons having claims against the estate of W. B. Leach, deceased, are hereby notified to produce the same, properly proven, to the undersigned, Master Commissioner of said Court, at his office in Hartford in Ohio county, Kentucky, on or before the 2d day of May, next, or they will be forever barred. This 8th day of March, 1892. John P. BARNETT, Master Commissioner said Court.

32-8t.

A fresh car load of the best brands of

Fertilizers just received. Come and see us before buying.

Respectfully,

TAYLOR & CO.

Beaver Dam. tf

Notice.

All persons having claims against the estate of John Royal deceased, are requested to produce them properly proven to the undersigned on or before June 1, 1892. This March 17.

Miss Dora Gibson, who has been confined to her room for some time on the account of a fall last December, is out again. Her many friends were glad to see her on the streets Wednesday.

Miss Sara Collins, of Anderson's Bazaar, who has been in Cincinnati for past ten days buying a spring stock of millinery and picking up new novelties and ideas, will be home Monday.

Miss Dora Gibson, who has been confined to her room for some time on the account of a fall last December, is out again. Her many friends were glad to see her on the streets Wednesday.

33-8t. J. S. R. Wedding, Adm'r.

Notice.

The Ohio county Farmers and Labors Union will meet at Salem on April 7 and 8th, 1892.

G. W. YATES, Sec'y

TOWN TATTERL.

A citizen was recently heard to say that if Congress votes $5,000,000 more for the World's Fair the Congressmen ought to be hanged, and that if the President signs the bill he ought to be burned at the stake; and he was a Kentuckian, too.

*.*

"To go or not to go, that is the question," murmured a young man under his breath as he heard the clock in an adjoining room strike ten. He cast a glance at the fair, one nestling in the rocking-chair a little way off, and she seemed to have a "do-say-a-little-longer" expression on her face which was, however, the opposite of what she felt, and so he decided that "not to go" was the proper solution. How vain is human reasoning. Four minutes later that youth was wending his way sorrowfully to his room, thinking a blue streak of bad thoughts against the old man, for having called bed-time at such a moment.

*.*

Frank Decker, of the Louisville Commercial, received a letter the other day from Beaver Dam, telling him that he could do good work in the way of securing subscriptions for the great daily if he would come down. He lost no time in coming and arrived in the little city Monday on the 12:10 train, ready for his work. But it soon dawned upon him that our Beaver Dam was not the place he was looking for, that it was a boat landing on Barren River to which he had been called. He realized he was left, so he came over to Hartford, conferred with our hustling newsboy, Walter Martin, met his old friends, made new acquaintances and Tuesday morning started on his way rejoicing.

*.*

Who is it that wouldn't envy the man when in this fix?

WHEN TWO FEET APART.

"Yes, I think it's about time for us to settle down—I'm going to give up cigarettes—you're awfully pretty to-night—"

"—You know that—that I don't like to be flattered—"

Hartford Republican

FRIDAY, MARCH 25, 1892.

CERALVO.

March 18.—Not so strange after all. Some say: "A strange thing in this age of ours, is to find grown-up men and women professing to doubt even the existence of a God or the credibility of Scripture." We wonder how people can believe anything who are capable of doubting in the face of such uncounted proofs and evidences. They are to be pitied but not petted over such mental or moral obliquity in this nineteenth century. Probably a majority who may chance to read this will say that it is so, but don't be too fast in rendering your judgment in the case. Is it Bal Ingersoll causing the above mentioned unbelief? I know not. Who then? First, the man who calls himself an Ambassador for Christ, and shuns to declare the whole counsel of God, and feels a little too modest to say: "Woe unto him that giveth his neighbor drink, that putteth the bottle to him and maketh him drunken, also, that thou mayest look on their nakedness? Thou art filled with shame for thy glory, drink thou also; and let thy fore skin be uncovered; the cup of the Lord's right hand shall be turned unto thee, and shameful spewing shall be on thy glory." For the violence of Lebanon shall cover thee, and the spoil of beasts, which made them afraid because of men's blood, and for the violence of the land, of the city, and all that dwell therein." May possible in some instances be either directly or indirectly concerned in the traffic, or renting or furnishing a building or capital to run the aforesaid business. Instead of lifting up his voice like a trumpet to cry aloud and spare not, saying: "Wine is a mocker, strong drink is raging, and whosoever is deceived thereby is not wise, and knows well that he has members in his church that get beastly drunk.

The second man is the one who can shout himself hoarse crying down with the thieving Tariff, and believing he is doing God's service, and possibly not thinking that the Boss who told him to say that, is being paid well in British Gold, to betray our American institutions, and is laughing at his folly. But we say, brother, you belong to the church and you tell me you are a child of a King, now Bal Ingersoll, with all his infidelity publicly and very hardly declares that rum is the devil's best friend and God's worst enemy.

Now brother, come, let us work together, use every honorable means to suppress this destroyer of all good. Will you tell the Grand Jury, or U. S. Marshal, how many jugs-fulls that fellow has peddled out in the last six months, in open defiance of the law of God and man? No I can't do that. Well, will you vote for local option prohibition? No, I don't believe in taking away men's rights. Well brother, what can or will you do in the premises? I don't know. Well what of the man that claims to be a Christian and will set and laugh at a fellow creature, charged with red liquor and listen to his foul obscene language and to all appearance enjoy his company, and what of the church member, that habitually uses very obscene language, and drinks the abominable stuff too, can you think of it as being so strange that grown up people doubt the existence of a God, or the credibility of the Scripture when we claim such wonders for the Gospel?

The characters above mentioned, not only make infidels, but make themselves a laughing-stock for the Devil.

HACKMETACK.

March 12, '92.—You made me say in your issue of Feb. 19th, that W.H. Royal was improving, but such was not the case, as he has been growing worse ever since he became ill and his recovery is now almost despaired of. Mrs. Mary F. Royal, who has been confined to her bed ever since the 31st of December is slowly improving.

A youthful visitor made its appearance at the residence of A. M. Johnson a few days ago. It's a boy.

One Miss, or a young woman, Askins, of Deanefield, happened to quite a distressing accident a few days ago, which your scribe mentions for the benefit of the Pitts' Gazette, Herald, if they will send their long Carpet Bagger, or little Prosecutor to Deanefield they can probably obtain the minute details.

Jo Edge and Mrs. L. Huff were married a few days ago by Rev. D. Westerfield, James Rouch and Miss Agapie Edge, also, committed matrimony a few days ago. Rev. Wright tied the knot. May they always be happy and lead good lives, make good husbands and make good wives.

Those desiring a sitting of pig eggs should read Miss Nambelle's letter on the last page of the REPUBLICAN of Feb. 26. I suppose those wanting the ready incubated pigs can get them if their incubator incubates.

A little four year old son of a gentleman, who took one of our young lady's for his second wife a short time ago, was told that his wife's wife was his step-mother. He was heard afterwards calling her "walkin."

A little three year old daughter of our deacon was heard to ask for some "meatin" bread—not meat and bread at a church not long ago, when the sacrament was being passed around.

J. S. M. Royal, who has been living near Sugar Grove schoolhouse for about two years, has moved back to his father's farm, where he formerly lived.

Rev. R. J. Brandon and W. W. Royal made a flying trip to Owensboro and back Friday. H. S. Royal and J. R. Evans, of Select, spent a few days in this vicinity this week.

Master Cary Wallhee, who lives near Fordville, is on an extensive visit to his grand-father's near No. Creek. Billy Bob Wells and wife, of Fordville, are visiting his brother-in-law C. P. Wells.

Miss Eliza Kelley, a charming young lady, who lives near Deanefield, has been visiting her brother, A. P. Kelley, for several weeks.

Baker Wells is visiting his step-son, R. V. Wells, near Fordville.

Hon. J. S. R. Wedding, of Hartford, came up from Owensboro to Whiteside Friday. Dr. and Mrs. J. W. McCarty, of Fordville, went to Owensboro and back Friday.

REPUBLICAN correspondents, let's hear from you as to your choice for President. Speak out in no uncertain terms.

teats a series of lectures, the second of which was delivered recently by Judge L. P. Little, on "Sir Walter Scott."

Dr. J. H. Bayett filled his pulpit at the First Baptist Church Sunday, after spending some time in Louisville, where he delivered a series of fifty-four successful sermons.

Saint Chapel, M. E. Church, is shortly to be re-modled and a lecture room erected. After its completion a $3,000 pipe organ will be presented by the Ladies Aid of the Church.

Rev. W. E. Cook, Owensesboro Circuit, of M. E. Church, has secured the German church on Tritplett Street and will in the future hold monthly worship at that place.

Contrary to the custom of several years past the Owensesboro High School will come out of the ruts this year and hold commencement exercises in May.

Mr. Hubbard lectured before the Public Schools of the city in the interests of the Humane Society of Boston Mass. From some of the utterances of the Society, I would advocate placing its works within the reach of every county school and that they should be read by every teacher before his school. M. A.

A NASAL INJECTOR free with each bottle of Shiloh's Camphor Remedy. Price 50 cents. Sold by Z. Wayne Griffin & Bro.

ROSINE.

Rosine is on a boom.

Prud. Lee Bennett began school here Monday with the prospect of good school. Those attending school here from time to time are G. M. Harrison, Lyon Hart, L. B. Mills, Sulphur Springs; Miss Olive Wedding, Whiteside, and several others are expected to matriculate next Monday.

The Kentucky Building & Loan Association, of Louisville, has organized a local board here with the following officers: Dr. S. J. Wedding, President; R. R. Wedding, Attorney; L. P. Crowder, Secretary and Treasurer; H. P. Watts, S. D. Morgan, Dr. J. L. Liles and J. A. McDaniel, Directors.

R. R. Wedding had a good horse killed by the train on the 11th inst.

Rosa.

It happened that for several days in succession the perch stood by the wall, close beside the electric bell. When Mrs. Johnson touched the button, Jocko took notes with his head on one side and a most inspiring air, and when the servant appeared immediately afterward Jocko gave a faint croak of astonishment. After witnessing this performance several times it was evident that Jocko began to see some connection between the button and the servant.

He spent a great deal of time studying the button, running his beak softly around it, and apparently communing with himself, his mistress watching him meanwhile highly amused at his cleverness. At last, whether accidentally or otherwise, Jocko discovered the connection and pressed the button. The next moment a servant appeared, and the little schemer straightened up and sold with great gravity, "Jocko's hungry." His mistress' shouts of laughter and the servant's astonishment did not in the least discompose him. He had run for what he wanted, and he insisted on having it.

The scheme worked well, to Jocko's manifest delight. He rang the bell again before half an hour, and reappeared to the servant who answered the call: "Well, you are a daisy! Jocko wants water!" Colonel Johnson is so delighted with his bird's accomplishment that he invited some friends to witness it last night. Jocko was inclined to sit at first, but finally brightened up and was soon working at the button. When the servant entered Jocko poised himself on one foot, swung his body to and fro in a most affected way, and exclaimed: "Hello, Tom, is that you? Bring in another bottle of wine, will you?" Colonel Johnson, it is understood, is a church member, and his minister was present, and the colonel insists that Jocko caught this trick before he came into his hands.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

FRIENDSHIP.

March 12, '92.—You made me say in your issue of Feb. 19th, that W.H. Royal was improving, but such was not the case, as he has been growing worse ever since he became ill and his recovery is now almost despaired of. Mrs. Mary F. Royal, who has been confined to her bed ever since the 31st of December is slowly improving.

A youthful visitor made its appearance at the residence of A. M. Johnson a few days ago. It's a boy.

One Miss, or a young woman, Askins, of Deanefield, happened to quite a distressing accident a few days ago, which your scribe mentions for the benefit of the Pitts' Gazette, Herald, if they will send their long Carpet Bagger, or little Prosecutor to Deanefield they can probably obtain the minute details.

Jo Edge and Mrs. L. Huff were married a few days ago by Rev. D. Westerfield, James Rouch and Miss Agapie Edge, also, committed matrimony a few days ago. Rev. Wright tied the knot. May they always be happy and lead good lives, make good husbands and make good wives.

Those desiring a sitting of pig eggs should read Miss Nambelle's letter on the last page of the REPUBLICAN of Feb. 26. I suppose those wanting the ready incubated pigs can get them if their incubator incubates.

A little four year old son of a gentleman, who took one of our young lady's for his second wife a short time ago, was told that his wife's wife was his step-mother. He was heard afterwards calling her "walkin."

A little three year old daughter of our deacon was heard to ask for some "meatin" bread—not meat and bread at a church not long ago, when the sacrament was being passed around.

J. S. M. Royal, who has been living near Sugar Grove schoolhouse for about two years, has moved back to his father's farm, where he formerly lived.

Rev. R. J. Brandon and W. W. Royal made a flying trip to Owensboro and back Friday. H. S. Royal and J. R. Evans, of Select, spent a few days in this vicinity this week.

Master Cary Wallhee, who lives near Fordville, is on an extensive visit to his grand-father's near No. Creek. Billy Bob Wells and wife, of Fordville, are visiting his brother-in-law C. P. Wells.

Miss Eliza Kelley, a charming young lady, who lives near Deanefield, has been visiting her brother, A. P. Kelley, for several weeks.

Baker Wells is visiting his step-son, R. V. Wells, near Fordville.

Hon. J. S. R. Wedding, of Hartford, came up from Owensboro to Whiteside Friday. Dr. and Mrs. J. W. McCarty, of Fordville, went to Owensboro and back Friday.

REPUBLICAN correspondents, let's hear from you as to your choice for President. Speak out in no uncertain terms.

A WONDERFUL PARROT.

Be Learned in These Duties and Give the Fluency Various Orders.

A gentleman who has returned from Mexico, and who brought with him a parrot which he purchased in Vera Cruz, has been very much astonished at some tricks which the bird has learned during the few days he has been in the house. The bird's owner, Col. Howard Johnson, occupies a beautiful residence in the suburbs, and doubtless the bird is shown the liveliest interest in all his surroundings.

Contrary to the custom of several years past the Owensesboro High School will come out of the ruts this year and hold commencement exercises in May.

Mr. Hubbard lectured before the Public Schools of the city in the interests of the Humane Society of Boston Mass.

From some of the utterances of the Society, I would advocate placing its works within the reach of every county school and that they should be read by every teacher before his school.

M. A.

A NASAL INJECTOR free with each bottle of Shiloh's Camphor Remedy. Price 50 cents. Sold by Z. Wayne Griffin & Bro.

ROSE.

Rosine is on a boom.

Prud. Lee Bennett began school here Monday with the prospect of good school. Those attending school here from time to time are

G. M. Harrison, Lyon Hart, L. B. Mills,

Sulphur Springs; Miss Olive Wedding, Whiteside, and several others are expected to matriculate next

Monday.

The Kentucky Building & Loan

Association, of Louisville, has organized a local board here with the following officers: Dr. S. J. Wedding, President; R. R. Wedding, Attorney; L. P. Crowder, Secretary; H. P. Watts, S. D. Morgan, Dr. J.

L. Liles and J. A. McDaniel, Directors.

R. R. Weddin-g had a good horse killed by the train on the 11th inst.

Rosa.

SHILOH'S Cure will immediately relieve roup, Whooping Cough and Bronchitis. Sold by Z. Wayne

Griffin & Bro.

FRIENDSHIP.

March 12, '92.—You made me say in your issue of Feb. 19th, that W.H.

Royal was improving, but such was not the case, as he has been growing worse ever since he became ill and his recovery is now almost despaired of. Mrs. Mary F. Royal, who has been confined to her bed ever since the 31st of December is slowly improving.

A youthful visitor made its appearance at the residence of A. M. Johnson a few days ago. It's a boy.

One Miss, or a young woman, As-kins, of Deanefield, happened to quite a distressing accident a few days ago, which your scribe mentions for the benefit of the Pitts' Gazette

Herald, if they will send their long

Carpet Bagger, or little Prosecutor to Deanefield they can probably obtain the minute details.

A little three year old daughter of our deacon was heard to ask for some "meatin" bread—not meat and bread at a church not long ago, when the sacrament was being passed around.

J. S. M. Royal, who has been living near Sugar Grove schoolhouse for about two years, has moved back to his father's farm, where he formerly lived.

Rev. R. J. Brandon and W. W.

Royal made a flying trip to Owenses-